A CAMPAIGN FOR THE FUTURE OF SAINT AUGUSTINE'S COLLEGE

Support Saint Augustine's

From its humble founding 140 years ago, Saint Augustine's College has educated thousands of students who have made significant contributions to society. Moving into the future, the College will continue its mission of producing "change agents"- students who leave the College's gates prepared to make a difference in the world. These are the future leaders and some of the best and brightest students that the country has to offer.

With the changing landscape of education, Saint Augustine's College is now at a critical staitis evolution. To be successful, the College must ge in continue to grow to compete in an increasingly competitive market. The successful completion of "Fulfilling the Promise: A Campaign for the Future of Saint Augustine's College" will assist in cementing the College's place in the top tier of Historically Black Colleges and Universities.
