Falcons Release Coach Thomas Hargrove

Raleigh, NC- Saint Augustine's College has announced it will not reappoint Thomas Hargrove as the head men's basketball coach when his Letter of Agreement expires on March 15, 2008. "We appreciate the contributions Coach Hargrove has made to the basketball program over the last ten years," said Saint Augustine's College Athletic Director George Williams. "Coach Hargrove has had a significant impact on the campus and the student athletes who have played under his leadership."

Hargrove has compiled over 475 wins during his 28 year coaching career. He has assisted in the development of two CIAA Players of the Year, seven All-CIAA Players, and four Division II All-Americans during his tenure. Hargrove finished his final season with a 16-9 record.

A national search for a replacement will be launched immediately. The College expects to announce the replacement within the next three weeks.
