Class of 1958 Inducted into Saint Augustine's College Emeritus Class

Raleigh, NC –Twenty one graduates from the Saint Augustine's College class of 1958 were in attendance and inducted into the Emeritus class during the first annual alumni reunion banquet Thursday, May 8, 2008. More than 60 people gathered for the annual event, which in past years has been conducted during the alumni breakfast held on graduation morning.

Docenia Hammond, 1958 class leader presented more than $20,000 to the College on behalf of the class. Several other alumni chapters were also there and presented checks. President of Saint Augustine's College, Dianne Boardley Suber, spoke during the event and said, "I hope we can continue to represent to you the Saint Augustine's College you love and know."

Willis Peppers, a member of the class of 1958 said, "This is something I have been looking forward to for many years. The 1958 class has always been extremely close, so this is a wonderful evening for all of us."

Each member of the emeritus class received a medallion, mingled with old friends and enjoyed an evening reminiscing about old times. As a member of the Emeritus class, all alums begin to attend annual class reunions. The event was held in the Martin Luther King Jr. Ballroom on campus.
