WILLIAMS NAMED CIAA TRACK AND FIELD COACH OF THE YEAR

DURHAM, NC - Head coach George Williams of Saint Augustine's College was named 2008 CIAA coach of the year in men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field on Tuesday (May 20) at the CIAA Coach of the Year Luncheon at the Durham Marriott at the City Center.

Janette Johnson, the Saint Augustine's College Senior Woman Administrator, accepted the awards in the absence of Williams, who is in California with his track and field team for the NCAA Division II National Outdoor Championships which will be held May 22-24. Williams directed the Falcons to the CIAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships, and led the Falcons to their third straight NCAA Division II National Indoor Men's Championship while the Lady Falcons placed second.

Williams, along with the other 2008 CIAA Coaches of the Year, were honored at the annual luncheon.
