Food, Fun, & Entertainment for Raleigh Residents during annual Community Day

Raleigh, NC- Community leaders, local organizations, and Southeast Raleigh residents are invited to come out and celebrate at the fourth annual Community Day on Saturday, April 5, on the campus of Saint Augustine's College from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Admission, activities and food are free and the event will be enjoyable for the whole family.

Plan the day visiting the vendors, learning information about cancer and cancer screenings, enjoy a concert by Mike-E from HBO Def poetry, the NFL network and Ethiopian television featuring Kenny Watson, DJ Invisible, Sowande Keita, plus a live seven piece band. The kids will enjoy the giant slide, stadium moonwalk, and face painting. There will be a live WAUG radio remote, games, prizes, music, demonstrations, and lunch.

Tour the campus, meet campus administration and student groups. Booths will be set up for on-site admissions and scholarship opportunities. Enjoy entertainment featuring step teams from Greek organizations and the Falcon cheerleaders. Rain or shine the event will be a fun-filled day for the entire family.

Saint Augustine's College is proud to reach out and support the Southeast Raleigh community.
