

*From the Office of the President
Dr. Maria A. Lumpkin*

SAINT AUGUSTINE'S
UNIVERSITY
Transform. Excel. Lead.

Dr. Maria Arvelo Lumpkin serves as the interim president at Saint Augustine's University. Most recently she served as Acting President, Chief Operating Officer and Vice President & Chief of Staff . She is the youngest chief executive officer and the first female Alumnae to serve in this role. In her new role as interim president, Dr. Lumpkin is leading the university in what she has described as, "the biggest experiment in the history of the university, COVID-19." Under her leadership there was a 5% increase in enrollment from Fall 2019 to Fall 2020; and $5.9 % increase in the university's net assets. During this period of growth the university was awarded over $7 million dollars in stimulus funding from the CARES Act and the State of North Carolina. Dr. Lumpkin also reignited the completion of the Tuttle Public Health Center, funded by the Student Aid and Fiscal Responsibility Act (SAFRA) grant awarded through the Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) Program of the Department of Education and raised over $100,000 in campaigns to support the Chamber Singers Spring 2020 North American Tour, the Divine Nine Challenge, and the Emergency Fund and Laptop Campaign.

In her previous role as Chief Operating Officer for the University, Dr. Lumpkin proved to be a transformational leader. One of her most notable accomplishments is leading the team that procured a $3.5 million dollar Emergency Assistance grant from the United States Department of Education. Throughout her career, Dr. Lumpkin has brought a student-centered approach to her work and the institutions she has served. Dr. Lumpkin's experience and credentials are extensive. She received her bachelor's degree, cum laude from Saint Augustine's College, now University, in 1996; a Master of Urban Studies degree from Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia; and a Doctorate in Educational Leadership and Policy from Clark Atlanta University. She holds certification as a Case Teaching instructor by the Institute for Case Teaching at the Harvard University School of Divinity.

Dr. Lumpkin brings to the university over 20 years of higher education experience as a student centered professional and administrator. Her professional background includes serving in progressive leadership roles in two of the largest university systems in the nation -- the University System of Georgia (USG) and the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (PASSHE). She also worked in the Atlanta University Center (AUC), the only Historically Black College and University (HBCU) consortium in the country. Most recently she served as the special assistant to the president, and as the inaugural executive director of student retention and the center for scholar communities at Shippensburg University. She has also provided outstanding leadership as Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management at Atlanta Metropolitan State College, Assistant Dean of Students at North Carolina Central University, Assistant Dean of Students at Spelman College. She has also worked in key leadership positions at Albany State University, and as Director of Student Involvement and co-director of the Global Civic Engagement Program at Georgia Gwinnett College (GGC), and Special Assistant to the Vice President for Community Engagement and Director of the Mercer University Center for Community Development and Service Learning. A signature feature of her career has been her work in the area of diversity and multicultural education, student success, and retention. She has developed several transformative programs including the Common Reading Initiative at Georgia Gwinnett College, the Social Justice Living and Learning Community and Student Affairs Global Experience (SAGE) at Spelman, which was featured the 2007 BET documentary, Spelman Spring Break Diaries. This was a memoir of her travels with students from Morehouse and Spelman College to work with the Women's Health Education and Prevention Strategies Alliance's 10,000 Girls Program in Senegal, West Africa. (Founder, Dr. Viola Vaughn was a 2008 recipient of the CNN Heroes Award). A professional grant writer, she established the President's Task Force on Civic Engagement and procured over $5 million dollars in private grants from the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, Coca Cola, Target Foundation, Perkins Ponder Foundation, and the Federal Home Loan Bank to pilot and support several University-community partnership programs and catalyze major community development at Mercer University; and she has authored over $10 million dollars in Federal Grants, including TRiO (Upward Bound, Educational Talent Search, AmeriCorps National Service, and HOPE IV).

Dr. Lumpkin has been active on the Bibb County Workforce Investment Board, Goodwill Industries of Central Georgia Good Vocations Board, the Food Bank of Middle Georgia, and the international board of Africa's Children's Fund, the Atlanta Metropolitan State College Foundation, and the Clark Atlanta University Guild. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, The Links, Incorporated, and is a triple graduate of local, state, and national leadership programs including being a 2004 graduate of Leadership Macon (GA), a 2006 graduate of Leadership Georgia and a 2015 graduate of Leadership Women America. She was inducted into the Rotary Club of Raleigh in May 2020.

Dr. Lumpkin said of her appointment, "I am beyond thrilled to lead the "Falcon Nation" during this exciting period of growth in the life of the university. My appointment is especially meaningful to me, because I am a daughter of this great institution, and I know first-hand the transformational impact of a Saint Augustine's education. I am supported by a treasure trove of talented faculty, staff, students, and Board of Trustees in co-creating a dynamic learning environment." A native of Columbia, South Carolina, Lumpkin's dissertation research project was entitled Is There Learning in Service Learning? An Examination of the Effectiveness of Service Learning Programs at HBCU's as Perceived by Undergraduate Students. A seasoned world traveler, Dr. Lumpkin has traveled to every continent, except Antarctica for humanitarian and educational purposes. She has used her personal experience in the international diaspora to inspire and fund over 500 students education abroad opportunities. Dr. Lumpkin is married to Dr. Corey D. Lumpkin a graduate of Morehouse College, Morehouse School of Medicine and the University of Georgia School of Public Health.

About Saint Augustine's University Founded in 1867 by the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina, the mission of Saint Augustine's University is to sustain a learning community in which students can prepare academically, socially and spiritually for leadership in a complex, diverse and rapidly changing world.
www.st-aug.edu