

FSNB is a full-service bank that has been family owned and operated for over 75 years. We are currently seeking friendly, adaptable individuals to join our team as an entry level Retail Bank Teller! We have part-time and full-time positions available. We offer flexible scheduling options for college students.

Most of our locations are within Walmart offering our customers the convenience of “banking where you shop” while providing prospecting and sales opportunities that continue growing our business. Retail Bankers conduct general office work, banking transactions, sales, cross sales, account opening, and account management while providing extraordinary customer service.

FSNB provides paid training and promotes 100% within, offering career growth opportunities such as team leaders, supervisors, bank officers, and branch managers. All qualifications can be acquired through on the job training with no finance or accounting experience necessary.

If you are looking for an opportunity to learn something new or want to capitalize on any previous cash handling, financial industry, customer service, sales representative experience, or people skills—look no further and begin building a successful career with FSNB today! We are actively seeking high school graduates and individuals with transferable cashier, fast food, or sales representative skills to join our team.
