Other Important Financial Information

The total amount assessed for a semester is due at registration. Students with outstanding balances will not be allowed to register. Students are expected to meet their financial obligations promptly and without notice from the Office of Business and Finance. The University reserves the right to withhold services and accommodations, deny transcript requests, and/or place the student on financial suspension if payments are not made as agreed.

Payments may be made by cash, check, money order or the following credit cards: MasterCard, VISA and American Express. Personal checks are subject to verification. You should visit the University website to make on-line student account payments. Select the Students - Current Students tab to access the On-Line Payments option.

The non-refundable Deferred Payment Plan Fee must be paid at approval of the agreement. Payments are due as indicated on the agreement. Late payments are assessed a $25 late payment fee.

Students attending the University under the provisions of Department of Veteran Affairs, GI Bill Programs are responsible for meeting their expenses at registration.

Students who officially withdraw, are suspended, or are expelled are subject to the return of Title IV and other financial aid return of funds requirements according to published refund policies.

Room charges are non-refundable. Students who register boarding and subsequently change to non-boarding will receive an adjustment for unused board only. Board charges are refunded on a prorated basis.

NC State Sales Taxes on Food: The State of North Carolina made taxable many items that were previously excluded from sales taxes, including food sold to students at higher education institutions. If you register as a boarding student, your board charges (meal plan) are subject to sales taxes. You will be charged sales taxes based on the applicable NC State and Wake County tax rates, in addition to the cost of your meal plan. The tax rates are determined by the State of North Carolina. Sales taxes will be charged at the point of sale for all food purchased at the Saint Augustine's University Café and Grill.

Student Health Insurance: Full-time students are required to have health insurance. Saint Augustine's University offers student health insurance coverage with Wellfleet Insurance Company. The annual policy period is August 1, 2022 – July 31, 2023. Periods of coverage are annual, Fall Semester One, Spring & Summer-Semesters and Summer Semester (New Summer Students Only). Each period of coverage has a Waiver and Enrollment Deadline. Eligibility requirements allow you to submit an insurance waiver which would provide information on your existing services. Students that do not produce evidence of insurance coverage by the deadline will automatically be enrolled in the University's insurance plan and the fee for the student health insurance coverage will be charged to the student's account. For more information, please refer to: www.st-aug.edu.

All individual expenses incurred by a student, in an emergency, or otherwise, will be billed to the student's account and must be paid immediately. Students are encouraged to obtain adequate insurance coverage for loss or damage of personal property. The University does not insure a student's personal property.
